

How to reach/leave Rome

Airports:

- Fiumicino “Leonardo Da Vinci” airport: located about 26 km from the center, is connected to the city by train and bus.

By train

Non-stop Leonardo express train to and from Termini station (connecting with the Metro – lines A e B); it leaves every 30 minutes, at 08 min and 38 min, and takes 31 minutes to get to Termini station. One-way ticket costs 14 € per person and can be purchased at the airport train station (ticket offices or self-service machines), at authorized points of sale (coffee bars, tobacconist’s/newsagents’ etc.) or online .

By bus

Terravision Shuttle Bus, that serves the route between the airport and Termini station. It leaves about every 30 minutes (less frequent at night) from Terminal 3, bus stop n°3. A one-way ticket is € 4 (web price) or € 6 (ticket office at the airport). More details

By taxi

Taxis for Rome are found at the exits of both the domestic and international arrival terminals. From Fiumicino Airport to the center of Rome, the journey takes between 40-50 minutes. The price is between 45/70 euros, according to the distance traveled. We recommend to book it online at <https://www.free-now.com/it/taxi-roma/> or other booking systems since queues can be quite long.

- Ciampino “G.B. Pastine” Airport: situated about 20 km from the city, is the other airport of Rome, where low-cost flights usually arrive. It is linked with the city by bus and metro.

By metro

Special buses (ATRAL/COTRAL service) connect Airport to Anagnina Metro Station (Line A), with trains running to the city center. They leave from the square in front of the airport. More details

By bus

Terravision Shuttle Bus serves also the route between Ciampino airport and Termini station. It leaves about every 30 minutes from the Arrival area bus stop n°3. A one-way ticket is 4 € (web price) or 6 € (ticket office at the airport). More details

By taxi

Taxis for Rome stop in the small square in front of the airport. To the center of Rome, the journey takes between 30-40 minutes. The price is between 30/40 euros, according to the distance traveled. We recommend to book it online at <https://www.free-now.com/it/taxi-roma/> or other booking systems since queues can be quite long.

Additional information for visitors can be also found in the city’s tourist portal

How to get around the city

- Metro and buses (There are two metro stops beneath Termini station (A/B lines) and a bus terminus in front of it)

The public transport system is based on three Metro lines (A, B, B1) and a network of services on the surface (buses, trams).

Buses run from 5.30 am to 11.30 am (afterwards only night services are working); the Metro is open from 5.30 am to 11.30 pm (on Friday and Saturday evenings until 1.30 am). A single ticket costs € 1,50 and you can use it for the metro (one trip) as well as for buses (during 100 minutes). Tickets may be purchased at every railway and Metro station, although also from licensed sales points (newspaper kiosks, bars, tobacconist, Tourist Information Points). More details (maps and routes) here

➤ Taxi

Taxis in Rome are white and have a TAXI sign on their roofs. You can take one at Taxi Stands or you can call for it; each radio taxi company has a number to request a taxi. We suggest:

CHIAMATAXI: (+39) 06 0609

RADIOTAXI (+39) 06 3570

TAXI LA CAPITALE (+39) 06 4994

TAXI SAMARCANDA (+39) 06 5551

Taxis have a meter that starts at a preset amount which differs by time of day.